

Centre Culturel Irlandais Artist Residency Programme: Independent Selection Panel Members

Call for Expressions of Interest

The Centre Culturel Irlandais (CCI) invites expressions of interest from artists and arts professionals to join its panel for the selection of artists for its Artist in Residence Programme.

Expressions of interest are sought for the roles of:

- Chair (non-voting)
- Ordinary members

About the Panel

The selection panel is the independent decision-making body responsible for selecting artists for the CCI Artist in Residence Programme.

The panel comprises:

- Six ordinary members with relevant artform expertise
- An chair (non-voting), responsible for oversight of process and governance

The purpose of the panel is to ensure that selection decisions are informed by a breadth of expert, independent perspectives, and are aligned with published criteria and programme objectives.

Role of Ordinary Members

Ordinary panel members are asked to:

- Review shortlisted applications in advance of panel meetings
- Assess and score applications against published criteria
- Provide clear rationale for their assessment decisions
- Contribute to collective decision-making
- Ensure consideration of:
 - Programme objectives
 - Balance across artforms and career stages
 - Diversity, inclusion and representation
- Declare conflicts of interest and adhere to relevant procedures

Panel members are expected to engage with objectivity, confidentiality and collegiality throughout the process.

Role of the Chair

The Chair will:

- Chair panel meetings and facilitate discussion
- Ensure fairness, consistency and transparency in decision-making
- Support the panel in reaching balanced and robust decisions
- Ensure adherence to the CCI policy framework and assessment process
- Oversee management of conflicts of interest

The Chair is a non-voting member of the panel.

Eligibility

Expressions of interest are invited from individuals who:

- Have a minimum of five years' relevant professional experience in the arts
- Demonstrate a recognised track record in their artform or area of practice
- Have expert knowledge and contextual understanding of their discipline
- Are able to assess artistic work critically and constructively
- Demonstrate a commitment to:
 - Confidentiality
 - Professionalism
 - Fair and transparent decision-making

We particularly welcome applicants with:

- Experience of assessment, adjudication or funding processes
- International perspectives and/or knowledge of Irish arts practice
- Expertise in equality, diversity and inclusion
